#1 9/11/2011 The Glenn Miller Army Air Force Band Tribute - The 17 member “tribute” orchestra recreates the sound and the look of the original Glenn Miller Orchestra with the original music arrangements. The orchestra is under the direction of trombonist and musical arranger Tom Daugherty. Featured with the group are vocalists Dale Hawley, Jarrod Harrah, Mindy Meltzer and vocal groups “The Moonlight Singers” recreating the original “Modernaires” and “The Swingin’ Sweethearts” as the “Andrew Sisters”. Also featured, are several musicians who were past members of the current Glenn Miller Orchestra.

#2 10/9/2011 Billy Dean a Grammy award winner - Billy Dean brings Nashville star power to every stage he graces. With 12 albums and 11 top 10 hits to his credit, Billy’s musical artistry transcends genre and rakes in awards, including The Academy of Country Music’s New Male Vocalist of The Year and Song of the Year (“Somewhere in My Broken Heart”), a Grammy for a country tribute “Amazing Grace,” and Country Music Television’s Rising Star Award. His enduring success led to another honor: the BMI Million Air Plays Award.

#3 12/4/2011 A Fayette Christmas - The music of the season performed by local artists. The Fayette Community Band and The Fayette County Choral Society will join efforts for this concert. It is always a pleasure to hear what these two groups are able to put together for our entertainment.

#4 3/11/2012 Legacy of Floyd Cramer – Jason Coleman has been blessed with tremendous talent inherited from his grandfather, the legendary keyboardist Floyd Cramer. He has matured into an uncanny reflection of his famous granddaddy and now his current concert tour, Legacy of Floyd Cramer, is bringing a heartfelt new life to Cramer’s beloved music.

#5 4/15/2012 The Four Aces - Sixty years ago, a quartet called The Four Aces began making hit records, and they didn’t stop until they reached No. 1 with “Three Coins in a Fountain” and “Love is a Many Splendored Thing.” Other Top 10 hits include “Sin,” “Stranger in Paradise” and “Tell Me Why.”
